From the President's Desk:

Dear SITians,

I wish one and all of SIT Family a Merry Christmas (belated), A Very Happy New Year and a Happy Pongal.

I would like to share the progress of the construction work of our open air Auditorium. The Structure is completed in all respects and gives a very good look. Finishing works like color washing, installation of busts of our unmatched Principals Late Sri G.S and Late Sri. ANC. providing Kota Stone Flooring in the main portion, fixing up of toilet seats, plumbing works, providing electrical connections are some of the works going on now. Hopefully all the above listed works will be completed in one month's time.

We propose to inaugurate the Main Stage portion of the Auditorium on 28th January 2022, along with the inauguration of the new constructed for the Paper & Pulp Technology department Industrial Lab funded by Seshasayee Papers and Boards Limited and SITAA and celebrate the 70th Annual day of the institution. We are aiming at doing all the above three on 28/1/22, with the blessings of God.

Since the Auditorium construction is in the finishing stage, a large amount of funds is urgently required. I feel happy to note the numerous positive responses against my previous appeals, from several alumni and I wish to thank each one of our alumnus. Still I expect a good contribution from some of our Alumni along with other Alumni, whose Contact details I got only recently.

The details of the events & other activities during this quarter are presented in the subsequent pages of this issue. Once again, I appeal to all our Alumni to come forward to contribute their might for the construction of the auditorium in our SIT Campus, so that the work can be accelerated and project can be completed at the earliest.

The Academic work for this year has started, as per the directives of the Government of Tamilnadu and Directorate of Technical Education, Chennai. It goes on well, with due care taken by Sri. G.M. Rajendran, Hon. Secretary, (SES), Dr.K.Vijayakumar, Principal-I/C, Dr.V.G.Ravindhren, Vice Principal and their team. I appeal to all students of SIT to utilize the best facilities available in our Institution and to shape themselves as promising professionals and leaders in their chosen fields.

The list of all donors for the Auditorium project is being compiled and will be recorded in a suitable way as the record for the future generations to know.

National board of accreditation (NBA) –

NBA, a mandatory accreditation to meet international standards in technical education. National Board of Accreditation (NBA) - NBA, or the National Board of Accreditation, is an autonomous government body that provides accreditation for various technical and professional programs of institutions across the country. The NBA is responsible for assuring the quality of education especially of the professional programmes like engineering and technology, management, architecture, pharmacy and hospitality. SIT is in the process of attaining NBA.

Washington Accord: The Washington accord is an international agreement between different bodies that accredits the engineering and other technical undergraduate programs. Their main objective is to recognize and facilitate the standardization of professional courses which is accredited by its member bodies. India has become a signatory member of this accord on 13th June 2014.

Washington Accord WA will create a substantial equivalence over the engineering and technical courses accredited by all its signatory members. When in full effect, the WA will improve the career opportunities of our students considerably and in turn, will have a positive impact on our national economy.

Effects of the Washington Accord

- there will be an effective interchange of international resources.
- Indian students could reach for career opportunities from many foreign nations which were previously unattainable because of the lateral dissimilarities of the education system.
- Indian universities will rise to the international standards and their programs will be considered valid across the globe.

The NBA is the signatory body that represents India in the Washington Accord

Kinds of institutions the NBA is relevant to. The NBA accredits programmes of following disciplines at Diploma, Undergraduate (UG), and Postgraduate (PG) levels for Engineering & Technology and other disciplines. The NBA accredits programs, not institutions.

The NBA operates a two-tier system of accreditation for all the programmes under its concern. The TIER-I system has been designed for the technical programmes offered by autonomous institutions and university departments better, while the TIER-II system is fine-tuned for the needs of the non-autonomous institutions affiliated to a university. Kinds of institutions the NBA is relevant to.

Accreditation process:

- a. The institution starts preparing for accreditation by forming various committees, monitoring different variables, including assessments, outcomes, and their attainment.
- b. The institution applies for accreditation, and submits the necessary documents including the self-Assessment Report (SAR).
- c. The NBA accepts the application, evaluates the SAR, and a peer team appointed by the NBA visits the institution for assessments and evaluations.
- d. The institution gets/ don't get accreditation for their programs.

e. The processes of continuous evaluation, self- assessment, and other practices for quality assurance continue. The accreditation process of the NBA can mainly outlined into these 5 major steps.

Accreditation practices are heavily based on Outcome based education. Outcome-based education (OBE) is a theory that bases education around pre-defined goals (outcomes). By the end of the educational experience, each student is expected to have achieved that goal.

Outcome based accreditation. Outcome based accreditation is essentially comprised of a range of skills and knowledge that a student will have upon graduating from the program. These outcomes are also aligned with graduate attributes (skills a graduate should have achieved by the end of the program) of Washington Accord.

Quality assurance inside institutions with OBE: The quality assurance inside the institution is done by evaluating and deciding certain desirable outcomes. Namely, Course Outcomes (CO) Program Outcomes (PO) Program Educational Objectives (PEO), Program Specific Outcomes (PSO) etc.

Quality assurance inside institutions - Program Outcomes (POs): As stated by NBA, represent the knowledge, skills and attitudes the students should have at the end of a four year engineering program in India. The Course Outcomes (COs): They are the resultant knowledge skills the student acquires at the end of a course. It defines the cognitive processes a course provides. Program Educational Objectives (PEO): PEOs are broad statements that describe the career and professional accomplishments in five years after graduation that the program is preparing graduates to achieve. Program Specific Outcomes (PSO): PSOs are statements that describe what the graduates of Self-Assessment Report (SAR): Self-Assessment Report (SAR) is compilation of such data and information pertaining to a given program for its assessment (identifying strength and weaknesses) vis-à-vis accomplishment of defined POs and PSOs by the college itself.

The SAR has two parts Part –I seeks Institutional /Departmental information. Part –II seeks information on The nine criteria, Programme Educational Objectives(PEOs), Programme Outcomes(POs), Programme curriculum, students’ performance, Faculty contributions, Facilities and technical support, Academic support units and teaching-learning process, Governance, Institutional visit. Once the institution has submitted the SAR along with their application, the NBA will decide on an evaluation team- a team that consists of a chairperson for the entire team and one or two evaluator(s) for each programme. The team will carefully examine the SAR and submit a pre-evaluation report to the ‘e-NBA’ on their insights and observations based on the SAR.

AICTE in its 49th Council meeting has recorded that NBA accreditation is mandatory for at least half of the programs held on 14-03-2017. (Ref. MOM Page 5, Point no.9)

Mandatory accreditation: At least half of all the programmes in the technical institutions shall be accredited through the NBA before 2022. Unless there is credible progress each year, the approval of the institutions can be refused. In order to assist the institutions in meeting the mandatory requirements for applying for accreditation, a separate mechanism will be put in place”

Various foreign universities and Companies are asking for NBA accredited status of the institution last studied DOTE has also mandated to get NBA accreditation in order to maintain the Autonomous status.
